

The Association of Church Musicians of Philadelphia is proud to offer to graduating high school seniors

The Peter LaManna Excellence in Music Scholarship

To apply for this scholarship, the student must

- be involved in his/her parish liturgy
- sing as a cantor or a choir member or play an instrument in his/her church
- have acceptable grades in class work in his/her school
- be approved by the school principal, the Director of Liturgical Music* of his/her parish, and the pastor of his/her parish
- continue studies in liturgical music through workshops and conferences

The applicant must present letters of recommendation from his/her school principal, guidance counselor, or department chair, the pastor of the parish, and the Director of Liturgical Music* of the parish.

There will be an interview and an instrumental or vocal audition. The applicant will receive the requirements for the audition when he/she applies.

The scholarship funds must be used for the awardee's undergraduate studies or liturgy workshops and conferences.

The name of the awardee will be announced at the Student Awards Ceremony in the spring. La Manna applicants will automatically be considered for one of the five Student Awards.

Applications will be accepted up until Friday, February 19, 2021. Auditions are scheduled for Sunday, March 14 at St. Christopher Church, Philadelphia.

(The Parish Director of Liturgical Music must be a member of ACMP.)*
